Trending now — 1 topic with a genuine brand angle

#	Trend	Source	Brand-twist content idea
1	Today, Nov 6, is National Nacho Day — a real, dated-today food observance, distinct from the recent run of food-holiday posts (Deviled Egg Day, Sandwich Day, Candy Day) since it's a snack/chip-aisle hook rather than deli/ grocery.	National Day Calendar — November 6	Instagram, convenience/liquor-store snack-aisle nudge. "It's National Nacho Day — good timing to check that chips, salsa, and cheese dip are stocked together and easy to grab, especially with football season in full swing. Small, easy win." No pricing claim, no overconsumption framing — a neutral snack-aisle merchandising nudge that works for convenience stores broadly and liquor stores pairing it with a game-day angle without any "drink more" framing.

Skipped / unconfirmed, despite extensive searching: Diwali business news — still only India-market pre-festival coverage, nothing US-merchant-relevant or dated to this week; no actual 2026 sales results exist yet since the festival runs Nov 6–10. Convenience-store industry news — nothing dated past May–August 2026. Gas prices — most recent confirmable figure is 5 days old, held rather than present a stale number as current. Halloween final spending — NRF’s final actual tally still hasn’t been published. State vape/CBD law — nothing dated to this week. TikTok trends — no November-specific sound/challenge could be confirmed. Loyalty/fintech news — nothing dated past April 2026. Small Business Saturday/Amex Shop Small — no 2026 US registration announcement found yet.

Compliance check: the one idea implies no pricing, no overconsumption, and no underage-adjacent framing — it’s a neutral snack-aisle stocking nudge with no alcohol/tobacco/CBD product claim.
