

The Pixelistry — Locust Grove, GA Lead List & Outreach Playbook

Prepared July 2026

The Pixelistry helps local small businesses look better on social media — photos, video, and content they don't have time to produce themselves. Below is a working lead list of real small businesses in and around Locust Grove, GA, pulled from public directories (Yelp, Yellow Pages, the Locust Grove Main Street directory, Alignable, and local search), organized by category, plus a practical playbook for approaching them.

Important caveat: these names, addresses, and phone numbers come from public listings and may be outdated or incomplete — always verify a business's current contact info, hours, and social presence before you reach out. Before pitching any lead, spend two minutes checking their Instagram/Facebook: no page, a stale feed (last post 60+ days ago), or phone-quality photos are your strongest opening lines.

1. Lead list by category

Fitness

Business	Notes
Workout Anytime (Locust Grove)	2694 N McDonough Rd / Hwy 155, (678) 782-7885 — already has an Instagram/Facebook presence, worth auditing for posting consistency
Fitness 1440	Smaller gym, owner "Robby" mentioned in reviews — good for a personal, founder-led approach

Retail & boutiques

Business	Notes
Sassy Flamingos	Boutique — "industrial boutique," classy/elegant clothing
Horsetown South	Western/equestrian gear and apparel — strong visual/lifestyle niche
Looks Hair Salon (boutique side)	See above

Real estate

Business	Notes
Ashley Connell — Crowe Realty	Realtor named in local reviews
Lisa Tingling, Lorie Couch	Independent realtors active in the Locust Grove market

Home & property services

Business	Notes
Yards R Us Inc.	116 Park 42 Dr. Suite C — landscaping/lawn maintenance
Peach Scapers LLC	Lawn care, pressure washing, landscape design
Southern Roots, Inc.	Landscaping
Jones Contracting Specialists LLC	Residential general contracting/remodeling
RAP Construction	Custom home builds and remodeling — before/after project photos and reels are a natural fit

Pets

Medical/dental

Business	Notes
DentFirst Dental Care (Locust Grove)	680 Market Place Blvd Suite A
Local dermatology & med-spa practices	Search "Locust Grove dermatology" for current names — these tend to have marketing budget already, so it's worth checking if they're using an agency before pitching

2. Know your competition

Two agencies already market social media/content services specifically into Henry County (McDonough, Stockbridge, Hampton, Locust Grove): EJM Services and Solia Media (the latter also offers photography, video, and drone). This isn't a reason to avoid the market — it confirms demand exists — but it means your pitch should lean into what a hyper-local, single-operator business can offer that a regional agency can't: personal relationship, faster turnaround, lower minimums, and you physically showing up to shoot content in person.

3. Outreach playbook

Prioritize by fit, not just familiarity

Best-fit leads are businesses where (a) visuals directly drive sales — food, fitness, real estate, pets, home renovation, beauty — and (b) you can already see their social presence is thin or stale. Real estate agents and restaurants are usually the highest-value first targets because they need recurring content (new listings, new specials), not a one-time shoot.

A. In-person / walk-in (highest conversion for a hyper-local business)

- Visit during a slow hour (weekday mid-morning/early afternoon), ask for the owner or manager by name if you have it.
- Bring a one-page "leave-behind" (not a full portfolio pitch) with 2-3 sample photos/reels — ideally shot of their storefront or product if you can grab a quick phone shot on the way in, so the pitch is already personalized.
- 30-second pitch: "Hi, I'm [name] with The Pixelistry — I help small businesses right here in Locust Grove get better photos and videos for social media so you don't have to do it yourself. I'd love to shoot a free short reel for you this week, no strings attached, just to show you what it'd look like. Can I grab your info?"
- Free-first-piece offer removes risk for them and gives you a real, local portfolio piece to show the next lead.

B. Chamber of Commerce & networking

- Join the Locust Grove Area Chamber (lgchamber.com) — attend a mixer or ribbon-cutting; these events are full of exactly the small-business owners you're targeting, already in a networking mindset.
- Claim/build a free business listing on Alignable (alignable.com/locust-grove-ga) — it's a small-business-to-small-business referral network and shows up in local search.
- Chamber ribbon-cuttings for new businesses are ideal — a brand-new business has zero existing content and the most urgent need.

C. Social media (DM/comment) approach

- Follow the business, leave a genuine comment on a recent post (compliment something specific — not "nice page!").
- Then DM: "Love what you're doing at [business]! I'm a local content creator/photographer here in Locust Grove — I help small businesses like yours with photos and short videos for Instagram/Facebook. Would you be open to a quick call or a free trial shoot?"
- If their last post is weeks/months old, that's your opening line: "Noticed it's been a bit since your last post — happy to help take that off your plate."

D. Warm referral loop

- After your first 2-3 clients, explicitly ask: "Do you know another local business owner who could use this?" Local business owners in a town this size mostly know each other (chamber, rotary, church, kids' school) — referrals will convert far better than cold outreach.
- Offer a small referral incentive (a free add-on post or discount on the next month) to your existing clients for referrals.

E. Local Facebook groups & Nextdoor

- Groups like "Locust Grove GA Community" or similar town Facebook groups and Nextdoor are where residents already discuss and recommend local businesses — post an intro (once, not spammy) and watch for businesses asking for marketing help or getting mentioned.

F. Simple starter offer to close the deal

Small businesses rarely have $2,000/month marketing budgets. Structure your first package to be a low-risk yes: -

Starter: one on-site shoot/month (photos + 2-3 short-form video clips), $X flat fee, no contract. - Growth: weekly content batches + basic posting/scheduling. - Lead with the Starter tier and the free first shoot — the goal of visit #1 is a foot in the door, not a signed annual contract.

Suggested first-week targets

Start with 5-10 walk-ins from the restaurant/cafe, real estate, and home-services categories above (recurring content need + visual product), plus one Chamber event if the timing lines up.
